Course Policies

Attendance – I expect you to attend each scheduled class and be on time. If you are late to class, you will not receive full credit for the day. It is your responsibility to inform the instructor after class that you were late so that you can receive partial credit for the day. Any student who exceeds two unexcused absences will be a candidate for withdrawal from the course, for you have missed a significant portion of our class meeting time. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to get in touch with a classmate to find out what you missed.

E-mail – You are responsible for all e-mail communications sent by your instructor and your classmates to your BSU e-mail account, per the University's E-mail as an Official Means of Communication to Students policy. It is important that you periodically check your BSU e-mail so that you do not miss important communications from your instructor and classmates.

Special Circumstances – Bridgewater State University is committed to ensuring equal academic opportunities and inclusion for students. If you have any special circumstances that might impact your participation, success, and/or comfort in class, please contact the instructor as soon as possible. These may include (but are not limited to) having a documented disability, involvement in upcoming religious observances, speaking English as a second language, etc.

Any student who due to a documented disability needs special accommodations to participate in class and/or complete assignments should contact the instructor during the add/drop period so that reasonable accommodations can be made. If you have not done so already, please register with the Disabilities Resources Office in the Academic Achievement Center, which is responsible for coordinating accommodations and services for students with disabilities.

Our course Learning Management System, Blackboard, was “designed and developed in accordance with the internationally recognized Web Content Accessibility (WCAG) Guidelines 2.0 Level AA as well as the Section 508 standards in the United States” according to the Blackboard Accessibility web site.

Change of Grade – “If a student believes that a mistake was made in the original grade recorded for a course, the student may petition the instructor for a change of grade no later than the last day of final exams in the academic semester following that in which the grade was recorded. A change of grade will not be considered after this time.” – excerpt from the Credit Hour and Grading System policy.

Preferred Name on BSU Records

Did you know that students can indicate their preferred names on some university records? Check out the Student Handbook for how to set your documents up to reflect your preferred name.

Academic Integrity – “Students are admitted to Bridgewater State University with the expectation that they will accept and abide by the standards of conduct and scholarship established by the faculty, administration and student governing boards. The university reserves the right to require students to withdraw who do not maintain acceptable academic standing. The university also reserves the right to dismiss, with due process, students who do not meet the requirements of conduct and order or whose behavior is inconsistent with the standards of the university.” – excerpted from the Academic Integrity Policy.
